under the patronage of the Consulate General of Grenada*

Presents.....

An Evening to Celebrate the Appointment of The Honourable Dr. Jean Augustine to the Order of Canada

The Honourable Dr. Jean Augustine, P.C., was the first African Canadian woman elected to Canada's National Parliament. Elected in 1993, Dr. Augustine served as Member for Etobicoke-Lakeshore, Minister of State for Multiculturalism and the Status of Women, Chair of the House of Commons Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs and International Trade, Deputy Speaker of the House of Commons and Parliamentary Secretary to the Prime Minister of Canada.

Dr. Augustine is the recipient of several awards including the YWCA Woman of Distinction Award, the Ontario Volunteer Award, and the University of the West Indies Caribbean Luminary Award. In 2007, Dr. Augustine was appointed Ontario's first Fairness Commissioner to advocate for foreign-trained professionals. She holds a B.A., a M.Ed., and an Honorary Doctor of Laws from the University of Toronto. Dr. Augustine is the proud mother of two daughters.
